

ICC THAILAND DINNER TALK

Dr. Fan Yang

Dr. Fan Yang
Director, International Dispute Resolution Academy (IDRA)

Dr. Fan Yang is a Fellow of the International Academy of the Belt and Road and a member of the Working Group on Dispute Resolution for the Belt and Road. She was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2005. She specializes in international commercial and investment arbitration, cross-border mediation and dispute resolution, complex commercial contracts (including sale of goods, letter of credits and carriage of goods by sea), and international comparative commercial law, arbitration and dispute resolution particularly under English law, Hong Kong law and Mainland Chinese law.

She has arbitrated in English and Chinese (Putonghua and Cantonese) languages. She has been appointed as an arbitrator under the ICC Rules of Arbitration (2012) and HKIAC Administered Arbitration Rules (2013), and has extensive experience in arbitrations under other leading institutional rules, as well as in ad hoc arbitrations in leading international seats including London, Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur.

Dr. Yang is a member of the ICC-HK Arbitration and ADR Committee and its Nomination Subcommittee. She is a member of the Task Force on Emergency Arbitrator Proceedings of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR. She is on the Panels of Arbitrators and Mediators of the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration (KLRC). She is a CEDR and HKMAAL Accredited Mediator. She is a Fellow and an approved faculty member of the CIArb.

She has published widely in a range of leading journals, including International and Comparative Law Quarterly, Cambridge University Press and Arbitration International, Oxford University Press. She is the sole author of a substantial commentary and casebook (Vols.1&2) on Foreign-related Arbitration in China, published by Cambridge University Press.
