

ICC Dinner Talk with Tejus Chauhan

Director of Arbitration & ADR, South Asia,
ICC Dispute Resolution Services

Expedited Procedure and the ICC's Latest Innovations in Arbitration

Join us for an exclusive ICC Dinner Talk with Tejus Chauhan, Director of Arbitration & ADR, South Asia, ICC Dispute Resolution Services, as he shares insights into the ICC's Expedited Procedure and the Court's latest innovations that are reshaping the arbitration process.

Tejus will discuss how the ICC's Expedited Procedure is improving the speed and cost-effectiveness of arbitration, making it a more accessible option for parties engaged in smaller disputes or those requiring a timely resolution. He will also highlight the ICC's ongoing innovations focused on managing time and costs more efficiently, as well as enhancing transparency in proceedings.

This intimate dinner setting provides an excellent opportunity for networking while gaining a deeper understanding of how the ICC is addressing the evolving demands of the arbitration community and end-users. Whether you're an in-house counsel, arbitration practitioner, or business professional, this dinner talk will give you valuable insights into the future of arbitration and how these changes are enhancing its relevance for businesses navigating today's complex global environment.

Registration fee (excluding 7% VAT)

- ICC Thailand member THB 2,500
- Non member THB 2,900

Contact: sirikorn@iccthailand.or.th

Click here
or scan the QR code to register
for the event

